4. The state and common law causes of action are properly before this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1338(b) and 1367.
5. Venue is proper under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b), as the parties reside in this District and Division; and the acts committed by Defendant that serve as the grounds for this complaint occurred within and were targeted towards this District and Division and the residents located within this District and Division.

FACTS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

6. Plaintiff is the owner of U.S. Trademark Registration No 3,300,595 for the mark NIC for "developing and preparing examination for the state registration of cosmetologists" (the "Mark").
7. A true and correct copy of Plaintiff's registration for the Mark is attached as Exhibit A.
8. Plaintiff also uses its Mark in association with providing business consulting services to state board administration agencies that proctor Plaintiff's exams.
9. Plaintiff has been using the Mark to provide its services since at least as early as 1959.
10. Through Plaintiff's use of the Mark, consumers have come to recognize the Mark as indicating Plaintiff as the source of its services.
11. Through its use of the Mark, Plaintiff has developed substantial common law rights to the Mark.
12. Through its use and registration of the Mark, Plaintiff has developed substantial statutory rights to the Mark.
13. Defendant is using Plaintiff's Mark and confusingly similar variations thereof to advertise cosmetology exam preparation services for state specific cosmetology exams, including the South Carolina state exam.
14. Defendant is directing its advertising, which includes use of the Mark, into South Carolina.
15. Defendant is directing its advertising, which includes use of the Mark, into Plaintiff's market area.

16. Defendant is using Plaintiff's Mark to advertise its services in the same market that Plaintiff provides its services.

17. Defendant's advertising, which includes use of the Mark, is targeting the same or similar customers as those targeted by Plaintiff.

18. Upon information and belief, Defendant is using Plaintiff's Mark to advertise its services to the same customers to whom Plaintiff markets and provides its services.

19. Plaintiff's first use of the Mark predates Defendant's use of the Mark or any confusingly similar variation thereof.

20. Plaintiff's rights to the Mark are superior to any rights that Defendant may claim in the Mark.

21. Plaintiff has demanded that Defendant cease using Plaintiff's Mark or any confusingly similar variation thereof.

22. Despite Plaintiff's demands, Defendant continues to use the Mark to advertise its services.
